

Coventry Dynamite Social Media Policy

- 1) Never pressure anyone to 'friend' you.
- 2) Seek permission from others before posting pictures or videos of them on publicly available social media (Facebook, Snapchat, Instagram, YouTube etc.)
- 3) Remember that if you 'friend' an athlete on social media, it doesn't necessarily mean that you are 'friends' in the real world. So, when commenting/liking posts please exercise caution where necessary.
- 4) Avoid association with social media accounts with explicit sexual content or viewpoints that might offend or compromise how others perceive you.
- 5) Never misrepresent yourself by making a fake account using fake names and profiles.
- 6) Do not post negatively about other athletes or teams.
- 7) Always represent the best version of yourself on social media. Remember once it's been 'posted' it can never be removed, even if you delete the original post it may have already been sent and shared.
- 8) Social Media platforms have age policies that should be adhered to.
- 9) If you choose to include Coventry Dynamite on your social media profiles (this could be in your bio or a photo in CD branded clothing/uniform), please understand that you are representing the CD brand and the CD coaches/staff are permitted to monitor and/or object to any content they feel to be inappropriate.
- 10) If you are over 18 and are choosing to 'friend/follow' an athlete that is under the age of 18, please proceed with caution and never establish one to one contact using social media or other messaging platforms. Likewise, if you are under 18 and, please do not establish one to one contact with any athlete or coach who is over 18.
- 11) Please do not open social media accounts for your CD team or any other CD representation prior to speaking with Sarah.
